Robyn,

It was REAL good meeting ya this year at the Orme Reform! Cant believe that I'm a senior! (It'll be kinda depressing seeing all of them GRADUATE! Hah?!)

Have a REAL good Summer & we'll see ya in September (that is if you don't see us first!)

Good luck in the future & use your Abilities to the fullest!

Liz

Robyn,
Howdy! This is your roommate speaking! Listen! Ha Ha
You've been a great roommate and friend I hope we keep in touch and are friends for a long time. Have a great Summer and be a good girl this Summer!
(P.S. Have the Best Summer you could ever Have!)
Love and friendship always

Robyn
It's been real nice knowing you and I hope you can come back next year. This summer is kept flying by
Have lots of fun - Ha Ha
Love ya
Debbie

Robyn,
Have a great summer - I'll miss you - Hope you'll be back next year!
Love ya
Debbie

Robyn,
Hope you have a great summer. Be sure to write me and tell me what you've been doing. Maybe I'll see you sometime.
Love ya

Robyn Stonie.

Hey, [redacted] what can I say. Hey baby. Well, you are a pretty good little, I mean LITTLE friend. I won't forget you so don't forget me okay? OKAY. Please don't forget all the fun we've had this year like rodeos, Gordon, riding, pissing off and all that stuff. Take care of Sara Spaz (wimpy's true belle). And thanks for doing my hair. Well I'll write more later.

Love,

Margo

Robyn,
Im glad we got to know each other so good this year. We had our ups and downs but fortunately most were ups. Member X-mas bake and your brownies. Don't forget the Wizo. Hey Mike. Have a good Summer. See ya over vacation.

Love,
Amy

Robyn,
so good luck next year w/ whatever, and maybe I'll see you if I don't come back, I'll visit so keep in touch, and I'll see you later

love,
Jessie

Robyn, (Grant barrett)
I think that's cutest guy you always make people see happen because you're always laughing. Don't ever change because you're a really good friend. I wish you only good luck in the future. I have a nice summer and I'll miss you. Keep in touch

Love always

Hi Robin,
Year's been a really great one. All right, I'm not really sure what to say. Don't stay gay and forget us Barretts! Stay well, You're the best! Stay that way.
Love ya!
Emily

Robbin
Have a great summer. See you next year.
I mean a lot to you.
Love,

Robynski,
I sure glad were good friends. This year has been fun. All times were party. I hope you and Jim can stay together during the summer. Some time all 4 of us should get together this summer and party. Your really nice to have for a friend. You have to come up this summer and go riding wit the "ecks". I can't write as much a, you because I can't put it all down in words. You had better "write" this summer, o, well, have a great summer.

Friends always
Love

ORME SCHOOL

This is the Orme Experience. A truly unique One! Every September finds new and returning students coming from throughout the United States and overseas to add a new chapter to their lives. In joining the Orme Community, located in the high desert of central Arizona, we have the opportunity to interact and learn from our varied backgrounds.

Orme is the nucleus from which we periodically depart to explore the Southwest and Mexico. Our first camping endeavor is the "Fall Outing" to the high country of the Verde Rim. In the spring we participate in "Caravan". We either venture south to visit our fabulous neighbor, Mexico, or north into the spectacular Indian Country of the 4-corners area. One of the special alternatives is a white-water rafting trip down the Colorado River. During the year our athletic and rodeo teams travel widely to compete all over the state. Periodic field trips, free weekends and shopping sprees keep our transportation center a hub of activity.

Orme draws it share of visitors, too. Throughout the year, interesting people from different parts of the world come to the campus. Whether they be guest artists for the Fine Arts Festival, Board of Trustee members attending meetings or speakers and performers at the Friday Night Program; they bring the outside world to our community. Our Key Club members are constantly hosting prospective students and their parents. All of this, coupled with the big Parents' Day at Thanksgiving makes Orme an interesting and exciting part of the mainstream of American life.

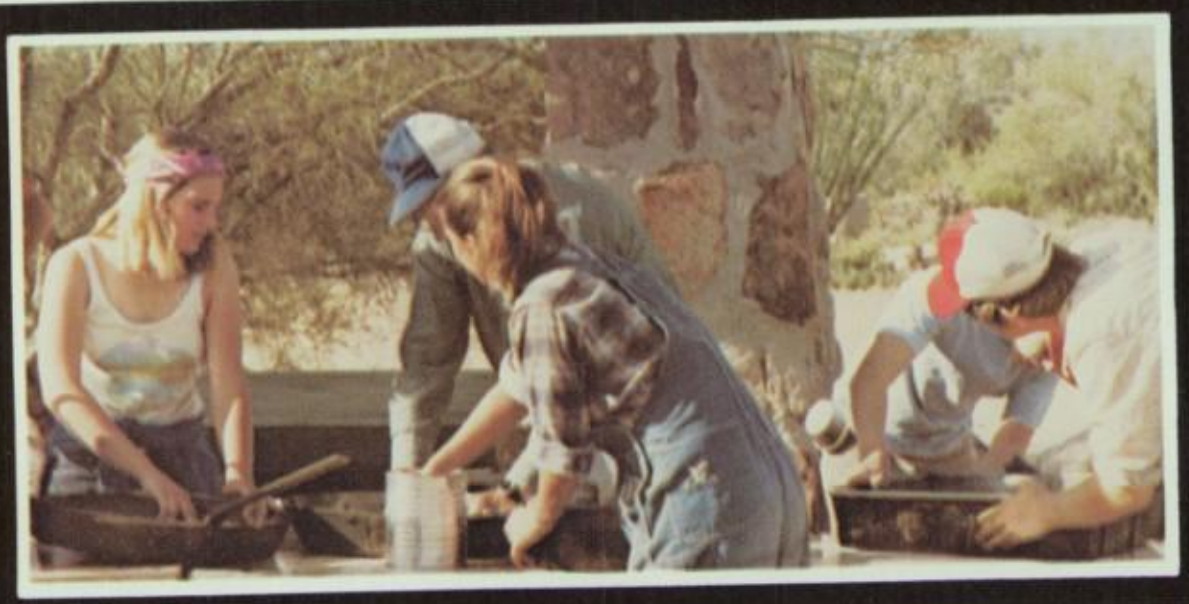
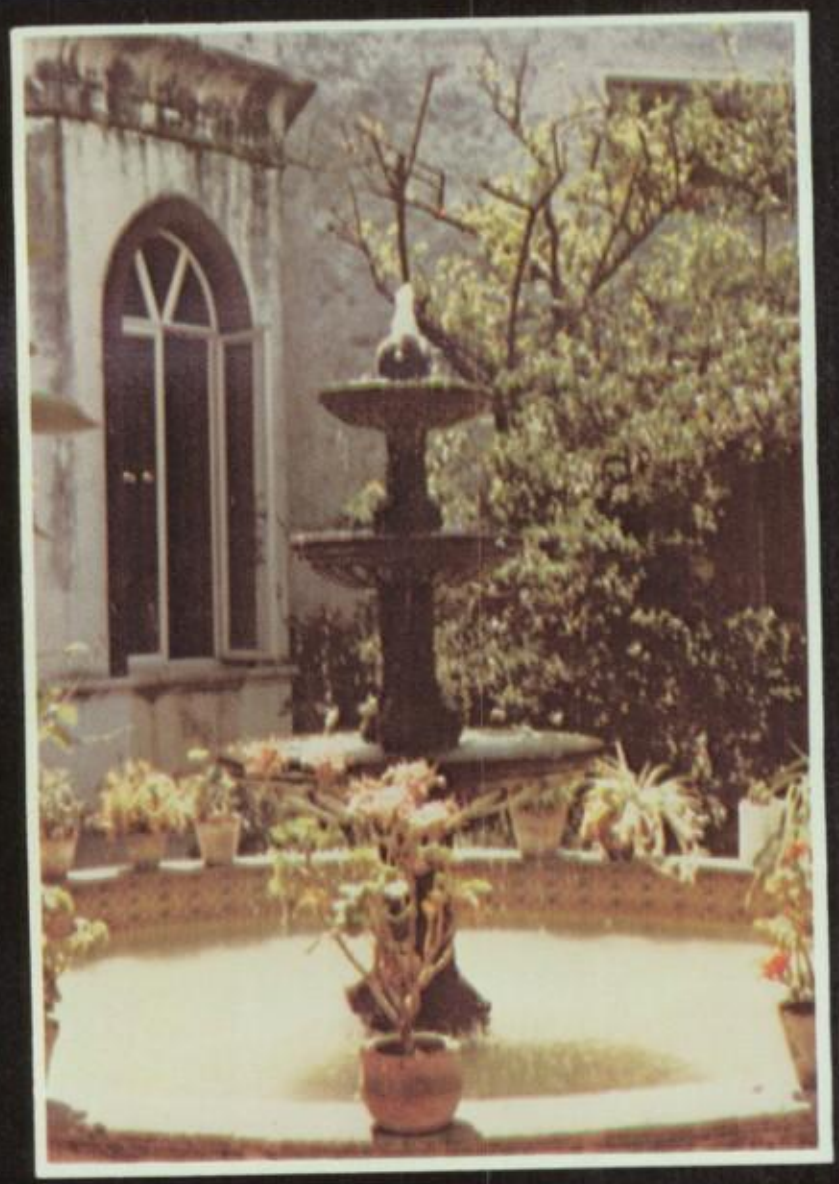
SPRING

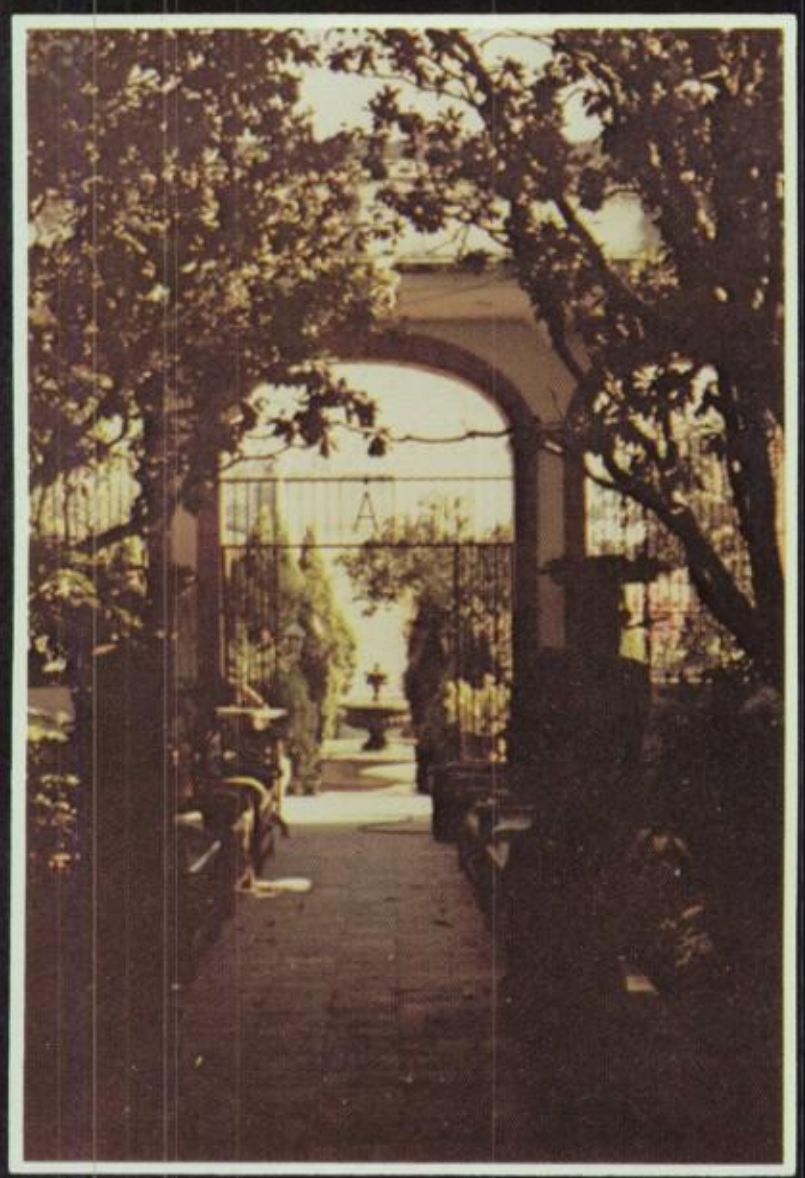
Main Caravan found students and faculty members trucking through Sonora, Mexico, learning about our neighbors while camping out in the countryside. Names such as Kino Bay, Guaymas, Alamos and Magdelena, once only dots on a map, became reality and highlighted visits for everyone. Two other groups traveled southward - Caborca Homestay learned the Mexican way of life first hand rather than from a textbook. Traveling to Guadalajara and Mexico City by train, another group toured ancient pyramids and major points of interest in these fascinating cities. Souveniors, photographs and memories all cleared customs nicely on returning home through Nogales, Mexico.

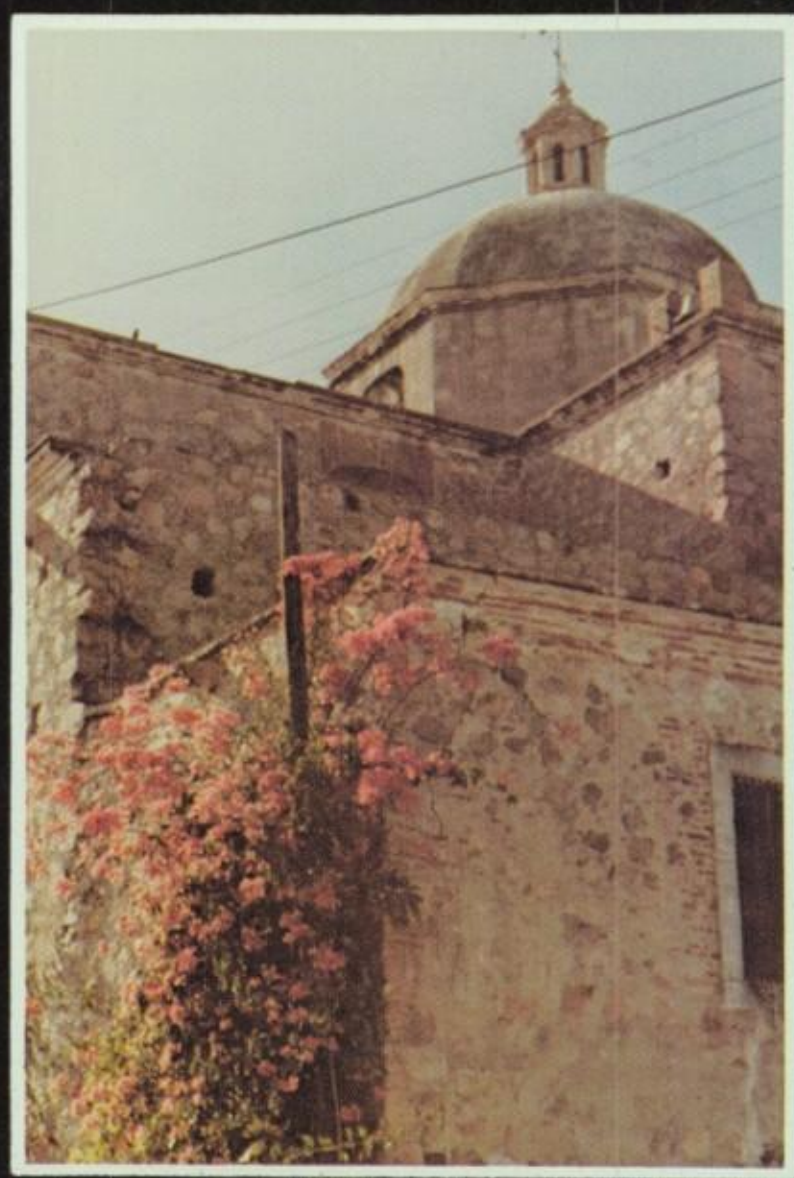




CARAVAN

To the North, two groups participated in raft trips running the upper and lower Colorado, hiking, camping, white water excitement, and beautiful suntanning weather. Experiences were exchanged when everyone returned to Orme ready for hot showers and the comforts of their dorm rooms.





FINE ARTS FESTIVAL

Fine Arts Festival is a week filled with events related to and involving creative arts. Regular classes are suspended and classrooms are transformed into workshop areas. We look forward with great anticipation to welcoming our returning workshop leaders who so generously share with us their artistic expertise. Days are filled exploring the creative process in each medium, the evenings set aside for lectures and performances. Visiting informally with the workshop leaders and viewing the extensive art exhibit of contemopary southwest artist displayed in the Phillips Library, adds a new dimension to our lives.

As one of the members of the Orme Family, I really like Orme, and Orme-life, for it's highly organized and educative. It is a place where students are trained for tomorrow's society, and for their future life, as a school should be. But with all its goodness and greatness, it can't be as my own family, who I miss very much. I'm sure that I would enjoy my life at Orme a lot more if I had them near me.
But anyway, I hope success, development and progress for the Orme School and its faculty and staff and the people who will come to Orme after us, to teach or to be taught.

Peter Townshend

Oh, mirror in the sky
What is love
Can the child within my heart rise above
Can I sail through the changing ocean tides
Can I handle the seasons of my life
Well, I've been afraid of changing
'Cause I've built my life around you
But time you bolder
Even children get older
And I'm getting older too.

Stephanie Nicks

Not Now, but in the coming years
It may be in the better land,
We'll read the meaning of our tears
And there, sometime, we'll understand.

We'll catch the broken threads again
And finish what we here began;
Heaven will then the mysteries explain
And then, ah then, we'll understand.

Then, trust in God through all thy days
Fear not, for He doth hold thy hand,
Though dark the way, still sing and praise
Sometimes, sometimes we'll understand.

Billy Joel

There are places I remember all my life
though some never change, some forever,
not for the better;
Some have gone, and some remain.
All these places had their moment,
with lovers and friends I still recall.
Some are dead and some are living;
In my life I've loved them all.
Though I know I'll never lose affection for people and things that were before;
I know I'll often stop and think about them.
In my life I'll love you more.

Good-bye Orme, I love you.

Try a little harder now-
No one said it would be easy
Doing whatever you do,
You just might have to suffer
But keep on movin right through.

Sometimes you have to change your tune to get where you want to be,
But don't you let that satisfy you you can have all you can see.

That you have made my freedom so complete;
That I'm no slave of whistle, clock or bell,

Orme football's successful season was not due to talking or thinking about a good season. It was due to action, doing something to make success a reality. Youth of today are out for a quick pleasure or a quick high. They want quick results. But things don't work that way-in football or in the classroom. Just saying you want a good academic record does not make it a reality. You must plan and set goals.

This past season began at 5:30 a.m. back in early September with inexperienced and weak players. But we set goals. Our weakness cost us a ballgame against Bagdad and we don't plan to have that happen again. We are now conditioning for next season, and this means a sacrifice of free time.

There were three characteristics of the "78" team. Determination is one. This showed in both defeat at Gila Bend in our 13-6 loss and in our 12-9 come-from-behind victory over Judson in unbelievable weather. Enthusiasm is another characteristic. I have never been associated with a team with more enthusiasm than that displayed by our students, faculty, and team in our game and pregame activities with Judson. And the third characteristic is loyalty. This one I can not describe; for you would have to be in the locker room in both defeat and victory to see what I call loyalty to team members and coaches that was shown by all.

You don't have these characteristics by just talking about them. They are created. Created by working together, by a caring attitude, and by having a desire to excell. Everything in life depends on them-not just football or academics.

The team, I know, have many memories, but the greatest moment for me was when two men met me outside our locker room in Camp Verde and said, "Coach, your team showed more disciplining and character th an any team we have seen come in here." That is what athletics is all about. We didn't have to talk about it, they saw it. — Coach R. Miller

THREE PLAYERS VOTED TO ALL-STATE

After getting off to a slow start, the Varsity Volleyball team made a strong showing in the state finals. In a single-elimination tournament, Orme lost to PCDS in the semi-finals. PCDS went on to win the championship, but Orme did not have a chance to play the second place team, and so we had to settle for third. Coaches from the other teams were obviously impressed with the girls' performance, as they voted Michelle Fry, Jennifer Onnen and Lauren Lovett to the All-Tournament Team.

The JV team showed marked improvement throughout the season. Several of its players were moved up to the varsity, including Donna Wilson, who was chosen Most Improved Player.

Boys and girls worked together this year to prepare for meets like Squaw Peak and Mingus Invitationals, and 10 kilometer (6.2 miles) runs, such as, The North Bank. Dave Snyder (17:10 for 3.2 miles, 37:05 for 6.2), Jim Williams (17:30 and 38:45), Charlie Brown and James Black led the boys teams; while Elvena "Pep" Taylor (13:56 for 1.9 miles, 50:35 for 6.2) was the tops for the girls.

Preparation is the key to success in Cross Country, and 300 miles of training led to Ormes 8th place among JV's at Squaw Peak (Dave Snyder, 25th out of 170, was a medalist), and to the destruction of all Independent School competition.

The 1978-79 cheerleading squad added spirit and enthusiasm to the numerous athletic events. This is an honorary organization of student service with the prime purpose of aiding the administration in hosting guests on campus. Members provide tours for prospective students, their families and act as interviewers in the admissions process. Attaining membership in the Key Club is an honorary award to students, who have positive leadership qualities, are neat and have a lot of spirit. Members are elected by the head master, assistant headmaster, director of admissions, the sponsor, Mrs. Joan Price, and Mr. Thomas, as well as the voting of the current student membership. The members are inducted into the Key Club during a Wednesday morning chapel service. Secrecy has been maintained until that time.

The students involved in the Horsemanship Program are quite active before classes each morning down at the Private Horse Corals (PH) doing their feeding and cleaning chores, during free periods caring for their horses and especially during activity periods. At that time students are involved in various facets such as, trail rides, rodeo, Western equitation, English riding and jumping. Special events happen on the week-ends — inter-school rodeos with Mingus and Judson, open ropings, round-ups, and Saturday morning trail rides. Highlights of the year are: Double-T 3 day pack trip, State 4-H events in Phoenix, Thanksgiving Day Rodeo, English Jump-off, Spring Rodeo.

Horsemanship participants may belong to the ORA (Orme Rodeo Association); one of their projects was selling caps with their insignia in red and white. They also raise money by selling refreshments at rodeo events and all proceeds go to paying the feed bills for the roping calves.

Four days a week, Dick Garst, Bill Davis, and Stu Bolton challenge their survival students by testing their skill and endurance. The beginning survival students learn such arts as firemaking, shelterbuilding, and food foraging. Hikes and lectures on first aid and safety are included. Other aspects of the program include rappelling and rock climbing. At the end of the term, the survivalists take the final test. They spend 24 hours in complete solitude, free from food or bedroll.

In the advanced survival program, the learning experience is continued, and skills such as orienteering are added. The solos are extended to 48 hours, sometimes even 72 hours. Obviously, the survival program is designed to build character and self-confidence. It is a very popular Orme activity.

The Orme Soccer Team had its first game on November 17th at Orme. The team did fairly well, with only four days of practice before meeting PCDS, which had had months of practice.

The most memorable game was against PCDS, held there. Orme came out the victor and scored 3 goals to their 1. It was the first time in 4 years that Orme had beaten PCDS.

The most outstanding players were the captains: Stan McCann, Elliott Hook and the goalie, Art McCann. The head coach this year was Howard Westfield with Ed Millar as assistant coach and Audrey Hagedorn as manager.

Before Christmas, Orme played in the Independent School League and after vacation all games were in non-league competition with Southwestern Academy.

CHAPEL COMMITTEE SERVES OUR COMMUNITY

Beth reads a lesson.

Students at "lunch fast" for World Hunger.

Chapel Committee is a group of students, sponsored by Rev. and Mrs. Price, who plan and organize chapel services. The officers are: President, Mary Beth Winheim, Vice President, Bill Cordasco, Secretary-Treasurer, Beth Griffin, and Student Senate Representative, Phillip DeMartin.

In an effort to make students aware of the problem of world hunger and their responsibility to help alleviate the problem, students participated in a "lunch fast" consisting of bread and water. For each participating student, the school donated a dollar to the hunger project. Over a hundred dollars was raised. The chapel also sponsors Goyatu Dido Dibasso, a girl from Marsabiti, Kenya.

Chapel is held Sunday evenings and Wednesday mornings. Sunday chapel often includes choral music and guest speakers. The Wednesday morning services are organized entirely by students and often include student poetry readings, songs and personal thoughts. The Candlelight Service is one of the highlights of the year. Chapel is a major part of Orme Life, a calm, quiet time. The year's committee worked hard and successfully to make the services interesting and inspiring to the community.

This year's basketball team held a definite philosophy, each individual should show gain from his experience. The team was in great condition; no one can outrun the Orme Warriors. What kept the team from winning was the fact that it was young and inexperienced. The Warriors scored more points against East Fork Mission and San Pasqual than any other team. The team members made great sacrifices in scheduling early morning practice and vigorous afternoon work outs. Mark Christy and Wes Woolf were the team captains. Mark Christy was the only senior and the leading rebounder in school history. This year's team worked well, both independently and together.

The beginning of the basketball season countless numbers of girls wandered into the gym ready to work out. After the first week of hard work outs, numerous girls decided that basketball just wasn't their sport and went into easier activities. The Junior-Varsity team practiced hard but complained they didn't have enough competition games. The Varsity team made it all the way to the state tournament that was held at Orme this year. They won the first game against East Fork and lost first place to the girls from San Pasqual, Yuma. Jan "Shorty" Hilton, Varsity Coach, was presented with a second place trophy. During the tournament, all coaches voted for All Tournament Team and Francie Kirkpatrick and Jennifer Onnen were named. All the girls deserved recognition for all their outstanding efforts. The players who will be on the team next year are determined to win a first place trophy.

MATMEN GRAB INDIVIDUAL HONORS

The wrestling season was marked by outstanding individual performances by veteran matmen. Senior, Larry Harris was 13-3 in his final campaign; and was 4th in the tough 138 lb. class at the Viking Invitational Tournament at Williams High School. Allan Hilton, a leg wrestling specialist, came on strong in his sophomore season. His 13-1-1- record included 3rd place in the Viking Invitational, 7 pins, and a draw against a Class A state place winner from Phoenix Indian High School. Also a sophomore, Todd Los Banos (10-2) shared the team lead in pins (7) using his wide open, aggressive wrestling style. Diminutive Jim Williams, in a 98 pound class, who weighed 85 pounds, was 10-3 for the year with six falls (including one of 30 seconds) and a 4th place finish in the Viking Invitational.

Team strength next year is assured by freshman strong boy Rick Holway (6-4-1) and first year lettermen, Mike Simms, and Oscar Duarte.

The Student Senate has approximately thirty-five members. It consists of class presidents and representatives, club representatives and dorm captains. Meetings are held every other week in the conference room of the Phillips Library. The Student Senate makes decisions that affect student life. All class proposals approved by it go to the FAS Board for action. Members are elected twice yearly. Both Student Executive Board members and Senate members meet with members of the Board of Trustees before taking them to a special luncheon in Founders Hall. Student Senate provides opportunities for students to speak out on issues which concern them.

As a small, but unusually diversified community, The Orme School provides a rare opportunity for boys and girls to understand and appreciate the demands of a community on its members. They clearly learn that a worthy and rewarding community life is achieved and sustained only through strong leadership of responsible citizens. Being a Prefect is one way to discharge this responsibility.

Prefects are those students that provide, assist and support the faculty, administration and student senate. In addition, it is the role of a Prefect to set an example for the student body in general. Prefects should be available to help in any area where the physical, moral or intellectual well being of the community or individual student is involved.

THE COWBOY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

J. Price - Sponsor, S. Walker, P. Vlassis, B. Grave, T. Garrett, M. Rosenheim, K. Backlund, B. Foxworth, K. Davis, G. Powell - Sponsor, D. Wood, C. Brooks.

The Society has been newly formed at the Orme School for the purpose of pursuing an in-depth study of western art and history of the United States. A special interest in the cowboy, his historic development, his art, music and folklore, and his enduring sense of values are the focus of investigation. Co-sponsored by the Chaplain, James B. Price, and the Horsemanship Director, Gary Powell, the Society's charter membership of students includes:

HONORS CLUB

All members of the student body who are on first or second honors (all 90's, or all 80's and 90's are eligible for membership.) The student chairman is Sophie Nagel, who was elected from the membership for each period between the publication of the honor roll. After the announcement of the honor roll, mid-term and term, a dessert party is held on campus at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Price. Off campus trips of cultural and educational value are arranged monthly. Members are invited to attend discussions on academic matters and programs.

WILDERNESS TREK

On Saturday, September 30th, faculty and students gathered in the barnyard with sleeping bags and other necessary camping equipment. The Fall Outing, an annual event of The Orme School, was about to begin. Students had the choice of riding horseback, riding in the back of a cattle truck, or hiking to the Double T Ranch, located southeast of the school. The activity offerings of the weekend included football, volleyball, riding, hiking, and rappelling. At the day's end, all gathered to participate in the long-time caravan tradition of singing around the campfire. The three day excursion ended with more friendships and a feeling of security and togetherness shared by student and faculty alike.

HOMECOMING HIGHLIGHTS

Homecoming activities began Friday night with a spirited pep rally followed by a bonfire. Saturday, the Warriors victoriously defeated Bradshaw, 7-6. Saturday night certainly was livened up by a "Toga" party in the gym. Homecoming wouldn't be complete without the King and Queen and their court. All-in-all, the Homecoming Weekend proved to be exciting.

GOBLINS, GHOSTS AND GIGGLES

Halloween began just like any other day, but, when the sun set it brought many surprises! Costumes of every kind appeared at dinner in response to a costume judging contest. All of the getups were terrific and imaginative, and the winners of the four categories were exceptional. Later that evening, there was a haunted house set up in the Commons Room. Debby Mathis and her committees transformed the Commons Room into an "uncommon" haunted house for an evening of hilarious, scary fun.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT THRIVES AT THANKSGIVING

Our last exam of Fall Term. - SS

There certainly was a great reason to be thankful this Thanksgiving; it marked the end of finals and a reunion with families and friends who had traveled to Orme to be with the students. Early morning was devoted to the end of the exam ordeal - English. Morning chapel followed. At the service, members of the community generously donated food for the needy. Then everyone's combined efforts went toward a complete cleanup of the campus. At noon parents began arriving for parent conferences and to attend the Book Fair held in Phillips Library. The Book Fair provides an opportunity for the parents to donate books to further enlarge the Phillips Library collection. Evening found everyone gathered in Founder's Hall to enjoy a Thanksgiving banquet with all the trimmings. Founder's was filled with an aura of the season's spirit as Orme's extended family ate and laughed together. After all were nicely stuffed, everyone moved on to the Horsecollar Theater to see the production of Agatha Christie's TEN LITTLE INDIANS directed by Randy Schulte. The day's end brought relief, happiness, and exhaustion.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES

The Christmas holiday festivities were celebrated on an early time schedule due to student's departures for destinations near and far to rejoin their families and friends. The Christmas dance was sponsored by the Sophomore Class and was held in the Commons Room.

The holiday festivities began with a Christmas dinner for the entire Orme Community and guests. Then came the long-anticipated visit from Santa and this year he brought his special helper, Debby Mathis. Santa led the crowd in a few spirited stanzas of "Jingle Bells"; he then proceeded to the Christmas tree which had been cut and decorated by the senior class. Santa handed out gifts to the youngest members of the community.

After the Christmas dinner the Chapel Committee and mixed choral groups presented the traditional candlelight service. At the close of the service, everyone had the opportunity to light an individual candle on the star. During the lighting of the star, the chorus led the congregation in a medley of Christmas Carols. After the service, students went to their advisors homes to feast on munchies. Buses left as early as 4:30 a.m. to transport students to the airport or bus depots, for the beginning of a three-week vacation.

Fine Arts if definitely an Orme highlight. Students and faculty leave the world of academics for a week and immerse themselves completely in the arts. Days are filled with workshops, and programs are held nightly. Friday evening's program, the closing night, gives the community a taste of several different workshops. Although it was a wet, muddy week, spirit and morale made up for the weather.

It is a time for all to relax and learn a particular art form. Many well-known artists, come to make this experience possible. The results will be treasured for years to come. The memory of the performances of music, dance and drama will never be erased from the minds of those who participated in them. The week was not only a success, it was a truly memorable experience.

Robyn,
it has been great, roaming and stuff. You and I have had our ups and downs but all in all it has been great.
love

AUTOGRAPHS

Robyn —
It's been a long
year, & it'll be an easier
one next year. Get thoughened up this summer so you won't be teary eyed during those long equitation lessons with Gary &
Sarah next year.
We love you —

This is a For Emily, Wherever I May Find Her communication.

It is a validation of my deepest gratitude for having had the opportunity to be chosen as your student for 9th Grade English at Orme, at the close-minded yet impressionable age of thirteen before I was cognizant of THE DANGLING CONVERSATION of Adulthood. Now, as SIMON & GARFUNKEL would have it, I AM A ROCK; a RICHARD CORY; A MOST PECULIAR MAN; and in 1979, LEAVES THAT ARE GREEN will turn to brown this Fall. I remain SOMEWHERE THEY CAN'T FIND ME singing that ANJI and I together, well...WE'VE GOT A GROOVEY THING GOIN'baby. As a bachelor I'm BLESSED, but working within THE SOUNDS OF SILENCE I search for my Venus on the half shell singing KATHY'S SONG. I guess for now it's APRIL COME SHE WILL.

Robyn,
Its been a kind of weird year for me. It took me some time to figure out weather it was a good one or a bad one but I did come up with a verdict of good. Sure I've had some bad times here but like I said in my speech in chapel when I sat down and added it all up I came up with more good than bad, hey it seems that ehve already said that. Robyn the closer the end of the year comes the sadder I get because I know that I wont be coming back. Oh I'll be back to visit but that wont be the same because I wont be able to sit down and talk to you the way we used to. You know Robyn, there was a time when we really became close and we talked all the time and that was great. I know I really enjoyed the times we were together talking or just fooling around because it made me feel good. Robyn you like a little sister to me which made things even better. I felt that I could talk to you about anything and everything and everyone needs someone like that. Remember when we were in the van talking about you know who and I was glad that someone understood my problem, I guess you could call it a problem because I was so confussed and you helped me straighten some things out. I'm also glad you and Jim got together because I know that deep down inside you were hurting and when you are hurting it makes me hurt so when you guys finally did get together it made me happy because you were happy. Robyn I will always remember you because you are very special to me and you always will be because I dont think that there is anything that can change that or that can change the way I feel about you. I hope you will always remember me because I would like to know how life turns out for you in years to come. Robyn I hope we will always stay in touch by writing, calling and even visiting each other because our relationship is not ending just because I'm leaving Orme, it is just beginning and it will last and it will grow because I wont let it end. I really wish I could express how I really feel about you Robyn because I dont think I'm doing to good right now. I guess when it comes to writting it all down I'm a flop but we have to talk before the end of the year and I will try to explain how I feel then. Take care and good luck in what ever you decide to do.

I'll always love you

Love

PEOPLE WHO CARE ABOUT PEOPLE,

care about Gittings Colour Portraits. Families need to be photographed regularly, as time touches each countenance; as we change and grow. We need formal, quiet portraits when we are composed and at our very best. Portraits to view with thoughtfulness and introspection, and to warm our hearts. Robyn, its
I guess its about time this year should be over. I'm gonna be sad though when all the Seniors graduate especially
Bob. We've had some pretty crazy but fun times together and I hope there are more of them next year. Do you remember when I woke you up to go see Jim, well in ending and good luck with school. You're doing really a winner just you wait and see. You'll get the hang of it.
We've also become pretty good friends and I hope it stays that way throughout next year and forever for that matter.
You and Jim are really cute shrimps you know. I like to tease you cause you're such a cutie. Well have a great Summer and don't do anything I wouldn't do ok. Take it easy.
If I forgot anything I will sign more ok.

THE CARD GAME ABOUT TO SWEEP THE NATION!

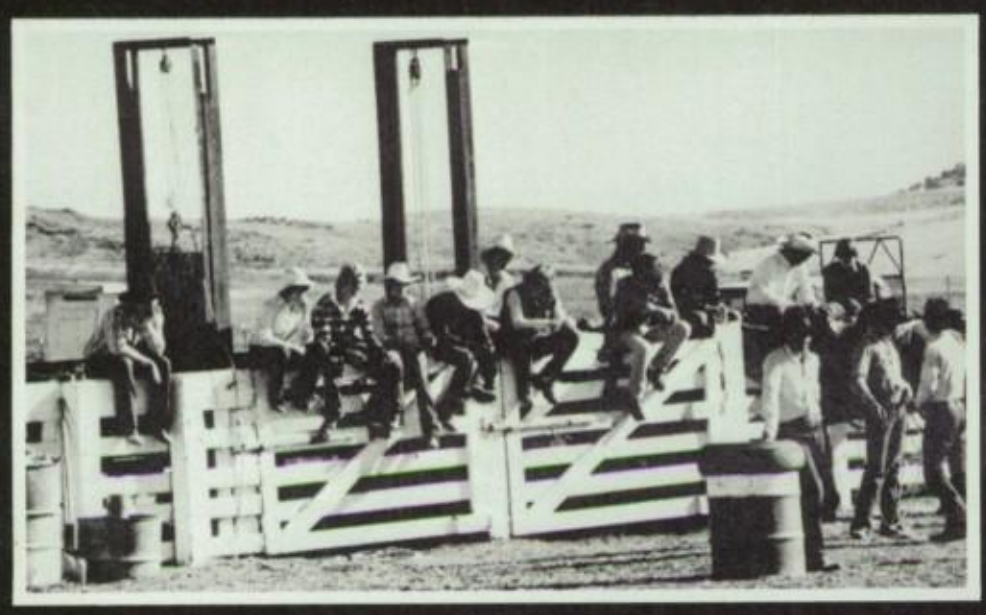
Dear Robin

This year has been a great one in many ways I got to be a really; got to be close friends which I liked very much I hope that next year we will even be closer I will always remember you for being so cute, sweet, and always understanding my problems.

PS. Remember me lots of love Art



After being united here at Orme and spending 9 months together, learning and sharing new experiences and discovering new ideas, when June 2nd comes we pack our belongings and go our separate ways until September. Those of us who may not be returning, such as the graduating seniors, may reflect back upon the 1978-79 school year while leafing through the yearbook and remembering the good times we have shared.

Robyn. In the beginning of the year we hated each other, but then we started to talk and we became friends. I am glad we became friends. I remember all the stuff we were going to do to Lisa. And remember the way Mrs Stelzer would rag out at us in class. It was pretty funny, then in Steve's study hall 3rd hour We give him so much shit! We have had some fun times here. When you come over this summer we are going to have to party with Lisa. Just don't get sick. And that is enough of Cold Duck and Champane for a while. And then your great brownies (the ones my dad threw out the window) When you come over I will cook my specialty Manicotti or how ever you spell it! Then we will wasted off our ass. We have had some fun times even though we have had our share of fights, but I am glad we have stayed friends (it freaks me out cuz you are an ass.) (ha, ha—I can't wait til next year we are going to have fun. Well I ran out of nice things to say so it will end here! (just kidd
